

Skeletal Quiz #1

Name: _____

Period: _____

1.) List the three structural classification of joints (do your best with spelling).

2.) The second name for fibrous joints are:

a. Amphiarthrodial joints

b. Synarthrodial joints

c. Diarthrodial joints

3.) The second name for cartilagenous joints are:

a. Amphiarthrodial joints

b. Synarthrodial joints

c. Diarthrodial joints

4.) The second name for synovial joints are:

a. Amphiarthrodial joints

b. Synarthrodial joints

c. Diarthrodial joints

5.) Give me three names of types of synovial joints and where they are found in the body.

6.) Amphiarthrodial means that there is _____ movement at the joint.

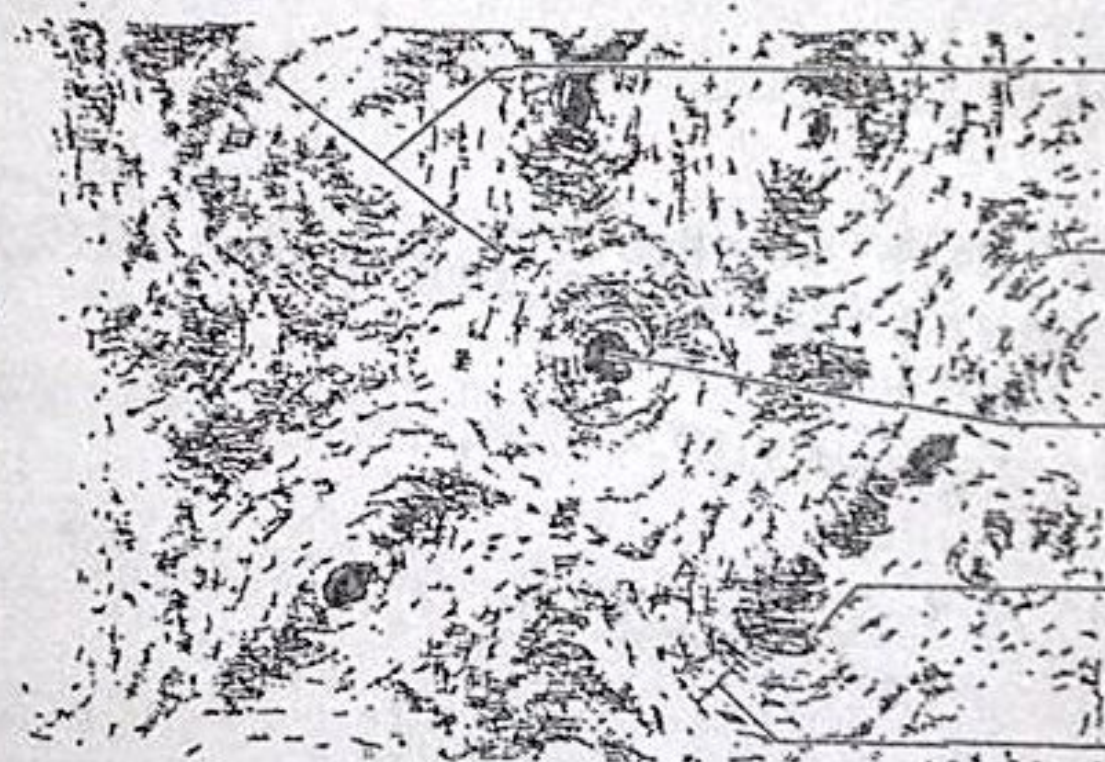

7.) Diarthrodial means that there is _____ movement at the joint.

8.) Synarthrodial means that there is _____ movement at the joint.

9.) Give me the name of two structures that you can find in a synovial joint (for example, synovial fluid but you can't use that answer).

10.) Label the following illustration using the terms provided:

- central canal
- lamella
- canaliculi
- osteon
- lacuna

- a. (functional unit of bone)
- b. (the thin lines)
- c.
- d. (the dark spot)
- e. (these are like canals that carry nutrients to the dark spots)